About Mrs. Garcia

I am the third grade homeroom teacher, Mrs. Genesis Garcia-Gomez. I was born and raised in Manila, Philippines. Surrounded by teachers in my family, I passionately pursued the calling of becoming one. I grew up in a Catholic community, attended public elementary and a Catholic high school. And in 2013, I graduated Bachelor of Secondary Education major in Mathematics in one of the well-known and respected universities in Manila, Philippines, the Far Eastern University.

I have been working in the field of education for almost six years. One year as a kindergarten teacher, and three years as second and third grade combination class teacher in a Christian School, and now the current homeroom third grade teacher, here at St. Anthony's.

This school year, there will no longer be any class parties to celebrate student's birthdays (see parent and student handbook p. 20). On the other hand, we will certainly acknowledge each student on his/her birthday and we will continue to announce the students at Morning Assembly and/or in classroom.

In addition, on your child's birthday, parents are given an option to bring goodie bag for all students in the class, that will be passed out as we prepare for dismissal, to be opened at home.

In an effort to build each teacher's classroom library and also promote literacy, parents also have an option of donating a book to the classroom library in their child's name as a birthday gift.

Library check - out is on Mondays. After talking to school librarians about library fines and the amount of books that were lost, I will not be allowing students to bring home library books. My classroom library books are available to be brought home.
