

5.8 ARTICLES

'THE', 'AN', AND 'A' POINT OUT A NOUN

Objective:

I can identify and use articles.

Articles: 'A' and 'An' point out any of a class of people, places, or things.

Use 'a' before a word that begins with a consonant sound.

- a banana
- a unicorn
- a student
- The test will start in a minute.
- There is a squirrel under the tree.

Use 'an' before a word that begins with a vowel sound.

- an apple
- an igloo
- an elephant
- You have an hour to finish it.

Article: 'The' points out a specific person, place, or thing.

- The test will start in an hour.
- The first flight of the Wright brothers lasted only 12 seconds.
- The handmade Peruvian sweaters were colorful.

Assessment

- Complete Voyages: Practice Book 5.8 ONLY
- Take a photo, then upload.